

- Homework:* Weekly homework will be assigned and graded (in part – one or two problems per assignment). Solutions will be discussed in class and posted online. Homework assignments are due at the beginning of class, on the due date. Late homework will receive partial credit.
- Laboratory:* The laboratory is an integral part of this course. The experiments will complement the topics of the lectures. The laboratory will count for 15% of your final grade. Missing 2 or more lab sessions will result in a failing grade for the course. See lab schedule for detailed information.

- Academic Honesty:* Academic dishonesty will be treated as an extremely serious matter, with serious consequences that can range from receiving no credit for assignments/tests to expulsion. It is never permissible to turn in any work that has been copied from another student or copied from a source (including Internet) without properly acknowledging the source. It is your responsibility to make sure that your work meets the standard of academic honesty set forth in the “LMU Honor Code and Process” which appears in the LMU Bulletin (see <http://bulletin.lmu.edu/>)
- Americans with Disabilities Act:*
- Students with special needs as addressed by the Americans with Disabilities Act who need reasonable modifications, special assistance, or accommodations in this course should promptly direct their request to the Disability Support Services Office. Any student who currently has a documented disability (physical, learning, or psychological) needing academic accommodations should contact the Disability Services Office (Daum Hall Room 224, 310-338-4535) as early in the semester as possible. All discussions will remain confidential. Please visit <http://academics.lmu.edu/dss/> for additional information.
- Syllabus changes:* If necessary, this syllabus and its contents are subject to revision; students are responsible for any changes or modifications announced in class.

Have a nice semester. Good luck!
